

Definition | 'Exigencies of Service'

The term 'exigencies of the service' is being used quite often, and its becoming rather the solution to years of staff mismanagement and non-planning, especially at district level.

The Union submitted a request to have what is meant by 'exigencies of the service' which derives from the needs of a professional Police service and not to fill gaps.

Direct and concrete actions for the benefit of our members.

